SUB: Constitution of Board of Studies

Indian Institute of Remote Sensing is a premier educational, training and research institution of ISRO in the field of Remote Sensing & Geoinformatics. With its restructuring as an independent unit under ISRO, IIRS needs to be guided by experts for its academic programmes. The IIRS Management Council has advised to constitute a Board of Studies (BoS) at par with other educational and training institutions. The BoS will have following Terms of Reference (TOR):

- Look into the existing course content and suggest revisions in the course curricula based on the latest developments in the technology and applications in RS & GIS and suggest new courses in line with individual/ministerial requirements;
- Assess the contents of lecture materials, practical & tutorial exercises and suggest suitable revisions; and
- Analyze the effectiveness of teaching methods, conduct of examinations and student's feedback of the course

Following is the proposed Board of Studies of IIRS.
